

List of Events

June 19th – The Air Race Classic has 57 race planes that will make Alva their first stop. Racer's leave Sweetwater, Tx at 8:00 a.m with the first planes due into Alva (AVK) around 9:30 a.m. With this being the 75th anniversary of the WASP's this makes it even more special being chosen as the 1st stop.

June 22nd - We will be kicking off the Wings Over the Prairie Fly-in, Come out and have “A good ole OKIE time”, we will have an exhibit building open with several aviation companies attending to help you spiffy up your plane. On Friday and Saturday Plane Plastics will offer tours of their plant, Alva Regional Airport Museum will be open to enjoy 35 plus years of Northwest Oklahoma aviation. Lots of planes, Friday evening comes with lots more fun activities. Community free feed, at 6:00 p.m. Randy with Texas T-Carts will fill the sky with his aerobatic act, Kevin Lacey from Airplane Repo and his kids with Tango Thirty One Aero Clube will be here to visit with everyone. Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy movies under the stars shown on the side of a hanger. Then climb into you tent as we will have camping on the airport..

June 23rd kicks off another fun day of Aviation, with a pilot breakfast in our terminal building from 7:30-9:30, then the fun starts all over again. We will have a visit from the Jayhawk Wing of the Commemorative Air Force out of Wichita, they will be giving rides in a PT23 and a UC78 from 8:30-4:00, Randy will fly once again at 10:30. Throughout the week-end there will be voting on 22 categories in the Best Of Show, a pilot luncheon will be from 11:30-1 p.m, At 1 we will dedicate our new turf runway. Finishing up this great week-end of Aviation will be the Best of Show awards presentation at 2 p.m...
